Easter 2021: Restart Anew

After a long day of work, you go to your car and it won't start. It is frustrating and worrying. Yet, when someone volunteers to help jump the car and it works, you realize it's only the battery. You enjoy the restart.

While playing golf with your friends, if you push your first drive out of bounds they may give you a first tee Mulligan. When you place that next shot down the center of the fairway to start out your round, you enjoy the restart.

As a sculptor working with clay, you strive to bring your vision to life. Realizing the first attempt is not satisfactory, you destroy your initial work and begin again so that your vision can be realized. You enjoy the restart.

We do not need to be reminded of all that has transpired over the past year. We know the difficulty, the separation, the frustration; and we, too, are looking to enjoy the restart. Easter 2021 represents a time of new life, new beginnings, and the opportunity to restart our life in meaningful and expressive ways.

At Easter we celebrate that Jesus, whom we thought was dead and gone, is alive and well. The tomb is empty and Jesus is moving forward. As disciples we, too, can continue to follow the ministry that God has given us. I believe a very critical question for all who would follow Christ proceeding this year of pandemic is: are we willing to go in new directions, participate in new ministries, and serve God in new ways? God is giving us an opportunity for a restart.

Restart

As a pastor, I often remind you that you are to be led by the Holy Spirit and that you, more than anyone else, are to discern what God is calling you to do. Yet, I do want to offer you some suggestions for service and volunteerism in the coming months and even years. I do not want to give you encouragement and then fail to offer you the opportunity.

2021 is a year of restart for all of us. 2021 will allow us to be closer with one another, to realize how important it is to be with other people after a year of isolation, and to know how much we took for granted the seemingly small opportunities for service that means so much.

The Worship, Music, and Arts Department needs volunteers in the following areas:

*Garden maintenance
Filing and Organization of the Music Library
Stage setups and removals
A/V tech support
Social event planning (for each musical ensemble)
Volunteer recognition specialist (gratitude exemplified)*

This Easter, I would encourage you to think about how you will be following Christ. Ministry is never a sedentary enterprise. Ministry always denotes movement. We are to move forward and advance the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our proclamation and in our service to and with others. Take that step of faith and take on a new opportunity to serve. I am confident that as you seek to serve God in new ways you, too, will enjoy the restart.

Yours in Christ,
Tim Womack

The Return of the Cantata

We are more than excited to announce that we will, indeed, be performing a Cantata this year! It will take place during the Palm Sunday services, March 28th, 2021 at 8:30am, 10:00am, and 11:15am in the sanctuary and via Livestream.

Worthy Is the Lamb! is the compelling story of God's plan to deliver all people from the clutches of sin and death. Lloyd Larson presents this powerful reminder that Isaiah's prophetic words were fulfilled in Jesus: "Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was pierced for our transgressions; crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and by His wounds we are healed" (Isaiah 53:4–5).

We are pleased to offer the lyrics to this work both in the email for the Palm Sunday bulletins, and also printed copies in the back of the sanctuary for reflection during this worship experience. Well into the 90th percentile of our choir have been fully vaccinated, and the maskless video recording will allow you to observe their facial expressions as an act of performance in addition to their sound. Additionally, live narration will be provided during the services. We would like to especially thank Sunrise Media Productions for their videography of this performance, and as always our A/V Team comprised of Butch Almberg, Jerry and Judy Garrett, and Jake Strang.

Habitat for Humanity Circle of Faith Build

Carol Smoyer, Bob Gormas

For Habitat family partner, Wanda Travis, a home is meant to be a place of comfort and peace. Unfortunately, her current housing situation left her feeling anything but. Not only is Wanda's former neighborhood noisy, but it is so unsafe she felt uncomfortable walking her dog, Cookie, at night.

Due to continually rising costs, affordable and quality housing options are limited. Wanda is hopeful that her new home in the Oslo community will provide her the peace of mind she has longed for. She looks forward to being in a community surrounded by neighbors she has worked tirelessly alongside while working to complete Habitat's affordable home ownership program.

Wanda has worked at Saint Edwards for over 7 years creating a family out of students and staff. Many of them were present at her home dedication and helped in the building of her home.

A Circle of Faith build is unique in that interfaith groups come together not only to work on the project but to fund it as well and create an opportunity for dialogue among different faith communities.

Sharing God's Love with Food and Kindness at Easter

We are beginning to see opportunities for gathering, but we still must be cautious. We continue to ask for donations that will be turned into gift cards for food. Please make out any donations to First Presbyterian Church with "food gift cards" written in the memo by March 28th. These gift cards will be given to Gifford Youth Activity Center, Dodgertown Elementary School families, Children's Home Society and Senior Resource Association and delivered.

This year, we would like to offer an opportunity for members of our congregation to "adopt a family" for Easter. We will have a list of families who are in great need of food. We will personally connect you with a phone number for each of these families so that you are able to help them with their individual needs to fill their bag for Easter. You may personally deliver this gift of love and caring and get to meet the family involved, or just drop it at their door. Please be sure to wear a mask when delivering these items. Although most of you may have had your vaccines, most of these families likely have not.

Please call Carol Smoyer (772) 567-0929, or email clsmoyer@bellsouth.net to adopt a family and for more information.

2021: The Year of the Older Adult at First Presbyterian

The Fellowship Talent Committee is pleased to announce that 2021 is the Year of the Older Adult at First Pres. We are re-vitalizing our Older Adult Ministry with new energy, purpose, priority, and a new strategy. In March, an Older Adult Ministry Team was assembled to re-create this vital part of the life of our church and they have hit the ground running. Team members are Frances Archibald, Bertie Centerbar, Glenn Conn, Stephanie Moore, Michael Timmons, Deb Alich, and Pastor Michael York.

The past 14 months has been a hardship for everyone, but the sun is out and the Lord will lead us into better days; this team intends to be ready. However, while mid- and long-term planning are progressing, the team will continue to move forward with monthly events and activities. Their ultimate goal is to create a robust and multi-faceted program that will enhance, inform, inspire, and bring joy into the lives of our older adults. Our database shows that we currently have more than 500 folks over the age of 60, further proving the need for expanded engagement of this segment of our church community. Our Diaconate does an extraordinary job with Congregational Care, and we will certainly be connecting with them and the other Talent Committees to share, coordinate, and elevate our activities.

The team is hosting two events so far within the coming months. On Thursday, April 1st, a Maundy Thursday Worship Luncheon will be held and on Sunday, May 2nd, the church will join many other PC USA churches in celebrating Older Adult Day. We will host a luncheon after the last service on that day.

We welcome your ideas and suggestions as we move toward development of the program. Please feel free to contact any of the Team members with your feedback. We will be meeting monthly and more when needed, and will be providing our membership with updates and announcements as they are approved. As Pastor Michael advised the Team, First Pres has unlimited potential to succeed in this endeavor, so we will AIM HIGH!! Stay tuned...

Blessings to All,
Deb Alich, Older Adult Ministry Team Chair
Pastor Michael York, Staff Leader

Presbyterian Women

The Quilting, Sewing & Crafts Small Group

Did you know... Presbyterian Women (PW) has an ongoing Quilting, Sewing & Crafts Small Group! All ladies are welcomed to join in at any time. This small group of women meet year round in the Activities Room on most Wednesdays from 2:00pm to 5:00pm. The participants are involved in various quilting, sewing and craft projects. They are creating beautiful items for sale at Christmas Tree Lane (CTL), which takes place in December. All the proceeds support the works of PW, including local, national and global mission endeavors. Also, some ladies work on personal projects and simply enjoy the fellowship and experienced quilting and craft wisdom that others offer.

When asked if they have any current supply needs, they shared they could use 100% cotton material of any color or pattern for their quilting projects. In addition, a financial gift or JOANN Fabrics gift card would enable the purchases of needed supplies for items donated to CTL. The group invites all ladies to stop in for a lovely time of fellowship during which hands remain creatively busy. If you have any questions about attending or donating items for their use, please contact Ruth Thomas at Ruthlthomas@yahoo.com.

CWS Church World Service Offering Opportunity

When disasters occur, we can help by supporting Church World Service (CWS) Blanket Sunday. Sunday, March 22, Sandy Thiel offers an encouragement to you to give generously for this offering of care.

Last year in February, the CWS offerings from this church family donated 500 articles of clothing and blankets to needy individuals in our own community and about $500 in cash. This year we cannot accept offerings of blankets and clothing because of pandemic restrictions BUT we can still make a great impact in helping others through a financial gift.

For a $10 gift, CWS can procure a blanket. By donating to this offering, you help to provide blankets for those in need as well as provide comfort from the cold. They distribute climate appropriate lightweight or heavyweight blankets that are water repellent, durable, and soft. While the focus is on blanket distribution, CWS also gives hygiene kits, school kits and emergency cleanup kits.

Checks may be made to Presbyterian Women and on the 'For' line write CWS. To donate online, just click here and be sure to choose "Blanket Sunday" in the drop-down menu under "Fund".

Profile of a Presbyterian Woman: Melissa Shine

by Elaine Heeren

If you attended 10:00 a.m. services "pre-COVID," you may have noticed Melissa & Joel Shine and their 3 young girls heading up the aisle to sit with an older couple – who just happen to be Melissa's parents, Ken and Jenifer Foster. (Another Foster, Grandma Dolores, livestreams.) Yes, church trustee Melissa Shine is part of something very special here at FPC: a family that can boast 4 generations active in our church – a distinction shared by just one other family.

Melissa has been a "First Presbyterian" since childhood. The Fosters were active in the First Presbyterian Church in Cartersville, GA, and both Melissa and her younger brother followed their lead. Melissa participated in Youth Group and choir, and regularly played piano and organ during services. She went on to the Univ. of Georgia, where a mutual friend introduced sophomore Melissa to Joel, then studying for his MBA. Two years later, in 2003, the couple were wed by Melissa's Cartersville chaplain in the University's chapel.

As for the next step, "We both wanted to live on Florida's East Coast," Melissa said. Using Joel's hometown of Hilton Head, SC, as their base, the newlyweds explored FL's coast on weekends and, as Melissa put it, "randomly chose Vero Beach." They rented a Vero townhome, found jobs, and packed all their belongings in 2 cars to excitedly head south.

Vero Beach has proven to be a happy choice. Joel is in the boat-building business; Melissa, a risk advisor at Vero Insurance. Early on, a desire to be a children's advocate prompted Melissa to volunteer at the Children's Home Society, where she served on the board for 9 years. The organization helped facilitate the adoption of the Shine's oldest daughter, Lola, now age 12. Subsequently, the couple was blessed with Hope, now 9, and Merritt, 6.

Melissa's board membership proved consequential in another way as well: our own Dr. Tim was on the board. Soon oldest daughter Lola was in the Quest after-school program and, as Melissa said, "we felt at home in the FPC family." Melissa's parents joined our church after retiring here 7 years ago; her grandparents followed within a year. (Sadly, the family has since lost granddad Wayne). Daughters Hope and Merritt enjoy Quest and children's choir and serve as acolytes. Lola is now in the Youth Group. Before Covid, the Shines were regulars at Wednesday Night Dinners, as the girls "loved seeing their Quest friends there," Melissa said.

Dr. Tim considers trustee Melissa our "E. F. Hutton." "When she speaks, people listen, and she has excellent sage and professional advice. She is very helpful in keeping us grounded in our ministries." This energetic young mother of three – who adeptly balances family & work life and devotion to our church – cites Luke 6:31, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," as her favorite Bible verse. She explained, "It's something I often talk about with my girls. It's a good scripture to live by." It is, indeed, Melissa, as you and Joel set the model for today's Christian family.

Hospitality

Planning on having a get-together for Easter? Here's a great recipe for Easter Bread - an Italian tradition. It's a sweetened soft Brioche-style bread with colored eggs baked right into the top! Try it with a cup of espresso for an Easter Brunch.

What is the significance of Easter Bread?

When it is baked in the shape of a wreath, it is to symbolize the crown of thorns worn by Jesus Christ. When the dough is braided with three pieces, it represents the Holy Trinity. Adding an egg to the bread represents rebirth, and Christ rising from the dead.

Italian Easter Bread (Brioche di Pasqua)

Ingredients:

4 cups flour
1 cup sugar
3 tsp baking powder
1 1/2 sticks of butter, melted

4 eggs, beaten

1 tsp anise extract

1 tsp vanilla extract

6-8 raw eggs, colored

1 egg, beaten (for use as an egg wash before baking)
rainbow nonpareil sprinkles

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Mix all dry ingredients together. In a separate bowl mix the butter, 4 eggs, and extracts together. Then combine the two until it forms a dough. Roll into three pieces and braid, form into the shape of a wreath.* Place it on a cookie sheet. Nestle the colored raw eggs into the top. Brush the dough with the egg wash, then top with rainbow nonpareil sprinkles and bake for 20-30 minutes. It's done when the top is golden. The eggs will come out "hard-boiled" when done and can be eaten, too! Allow time to cool before serving.

*My Great-Grandma used to make these in small braided "nests" with an easter egg in the middle for each of her grandchildren. Enjoy!

Love,
Ginger Lagemann
